Dear

At this time of year in Canada, gardens and gardening may seem like a distant memory.

But if you're like me, passionate about your garden (as I think you are), you may be poring through seed catalogues and dreaming of bulbs, shrubs, trees and new perennials right now, just itching to get your spade into the first clump of spring soil!

That's why you're invited to discover Garden Making magazine, a new source of inspiration and information for Canada's gardeners. Written by top Canadian gardening experts and enthusiasts, and gorgeously designed and photographed, Garden Making is your authoritative, complete guide to creating, maintaining, and enjoying your garden, from season to season.

You are invited to become a Charter Subscriber with this risk-free offer. Reserve your trial copy of the PREMIER ISSUE, plus receive 2 FREE BONUS ISSUES when you subscribe!

Garden Making isn't just for people who already know about gardening. Anyone who is passionate about growing and creating, learning and doing, can appreciate the how-to's, best-practices, tips, techniques and years of expert gardening advice in every issue...

... to prune or not to prune: your guide to when, what and how to prune throughout the year...

... incredible edibles: how to grow (and harvest and sustain) what you eat, from vegetables, to herbs, to fantastic seasonal fruits...

... everything you ever wanted to know about ... seeds, weeds, soil and more: learn from an in-depth gardening seminar on the finer points of gardening, featured in every issue...

... the potted garden: planting recipes, follow-up care and beauty tips for
